

NEIGHBORHOOD LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

PILOT YOUR CITY 2008 - 2009

The City of Charlottesville is accepting applications for the 2008 – 2009 Neighborhood Leadership Institute

Applications can be found online at www.charlottesville.org (“I want to” “apply for”)

The sessions are offered free of charge to anyone interested.

Classes will run from 6:00 – 9:00 and will include dinner. Sign up early, space is limited!

Applications will be received until class is full or until October 29, 2008.

DATE	SPEAKER SESSION	WORKSHOP SESSION
11/05/08	Intro. & Welcome	Alumni Meet and Greet
11/19/08	City Council, Boards & Commissions, and Political Involvement	City Hall Scavenger Hunt
12/09/08*	Development Review 101 / PC Mtg.	Final Project Kickoff
01/07/09	City Budget & CIP Overview	Balancing a Budget
01/21/09	Community Action Opportunities
02/04/09	The University & Local Economy	In-Class Project Time
02/18/09	Affordable Housing	Housing Activities
03/04/09	Public Safety: Buildings, Police & Fire	In-Class Project Time
03/18/09	Transportation in Charlottesville	Transit Design Charrette
04/01/09	Green Building & Infrastructure	In-Class Project Time
04/15/09	Social Services & Education	Mediation & Facilitation
04/29/09	Final Project Presentations	Graduation

Several spaces will be available to “audit” each session for those who wish to participate but cannot commit to the entire program. Please plan to sign up for these spaces in advance.

Session to start at 5:30 instead of 6:00*

Please direct any questions regarding NLI: Pilot Your City to Neil Currie,
Neighborhood Development Services – City Hall, 434-970-3331 or currie@charlottesville.org